GIMME THE WORKS

The Game Screen

- 1) Burger Factory: Manuever Peter Pepper up and down the ladders and left and right across the floors.
- 2) Scores: The top number is the current score and the lower number is the high score since your Game Boy was last turned on.
- 3) Current Level: There are four stages in each level. And seven levels in the game – each progressively more difficult.
- 4) Lives Remaining: Lists the number of Peter Pepper lives remaining.
- 5) Peppers Available: Number of pepper shakers available.

How To Play

The object of Burger Time Deluxe is to make hamburgers. Peter Pepper, the hamburger chef, is in charge of burger preparation. He climbs the ladders up and down and moves left and right across each floor. Crossing over any piece of the burger will cause it to fall one level – and push any other burger makings in that stack down a floor as well. Dropping all the burger makings in a stack to the bottom of the screen will complete a burger. Completing all the burgers on the current stage will move you to the next stage.

However, Food Foes – Mr. Hot Dog, Mr. Pickle and Mr. Egg – will try to stop Peter Pepper from making burgers. Peter Pepper can destroy these Food Foes by having them follow him across a piece of burger that's about to fall. Food Foes caught on a falling burger part will be destroyed along with any Food Foe that gets squished as a result of the burger-domino-effect. Peter can also freeze Food Foes – rendering them harmless for a few seconds – by shaking pepper at them. Additional pepper shakers will appear briefly on the screen at random. Run over the pepper to add to your pepper total. Make sure peppers are used sparingly, so that you've got them when the going gets tough.

Two-Player Games

With two players, connect your Game Link™ to your Game Boys. Turn on your machine and wait for the display screen with the three game options – 1 Player, 2 Player, and Password. Use the SELECT BUTTON to choose your game option or you can use the CONTROL PAD arrow to choose your game. Then press the START BUTTON. With the CONTROL PAD, press the up and down arrows to increase the number of games or decrease the number of games. In the top right and left corners in the small boxes are the numbers of games you must play to decide the game winner. The bottom boxes list the number of peppers you will have to use during the game rounds you have selected. Then press the START BUTTON to begin. Once a player wins a game, the screen will return and that person's hamburger stack will increase by a patty, lettuce or bun.

TODAY'S LUNCH SPECIALS

Points are accumulated by building burgers. Also by dropping burger parts or squishing them as the burgers fall to the next level. In addition, Bonus Characters like cups and saucers will appear briefly on the screen at random and will increase your score if you run over them.
